THE CHAMP

HE'S GOLDEN | In August, 20-year-old Kyle Snyder became the youngest Olympic gold medalist in U.S. wrestling history and first OSU Olympic champion since 1924.

YEAR IN REVIEW | Since September of 2015, Snyder has won a World championship, Big Ten champion, NCAA title and Olympic gold medal.

FIRST SINCE '60 | Snyder is the first active Ohio State student-athlete to win Olympic gold since Jerry Lucas (basketball) did so at the 1960 Games.

WELCOME HOME | In front of a crowd of over 105,000, Snyder was honored at Ohio State's season-opener against Bowling Green.

STRONG FINISHER | In his four Olympic wins, Snyder scored 23 of his 28 points in the second period - including nine straight in the semifinals.

HEAD COACH TOM RYAN

Tom Ryan has led the Ohio State wrestling program to unprecedented heights, culminating in 2015 with the program's first-ever national championship. The 2015 Big Ten, NWCA and InterMat Coach of the Year, Ryan concluded his 10th season in Columbus last March by watching both Myles Martin and Kyle Snyder win NCAA titles on the way to the Buckeyes' fourth top-three finish at the NCAA Championships in the last 10 years.

In all, Ryan has coached six different student-athletes to 10 national championships as Logan Stieber (141 pounds) was a four-time champion, J Jagers (141 pounds), the 2009 Ohio State Male Athlete of the Year, was a two-time champion in 2008 and 2009, Mike Pucillo was the 184-pound champion in 2008 and Nathan Tomasello the 125 pound champion in 2015. In 2016, two new names were added to the list - Kyle Snyder (285 lbs.) and true freshman Myles Martin (174 lbs.). In the NCAA championship team race, the Ryan-led Buckeyes have finished in the Top 10 in nine of the last 10 seasons, including the 2015 national title and back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2008 and 2009.

Additionally, Ryan and his staff have coached 16 NCAA finalists - Stieber (2012-15), Martin (2016) Jagers (2008, 2009), Pucillo (2008, 2009), Tomasello (2015), Kyle Snyder (2015, 2016), Nick Helfin (2014), Lance Palmer (2010), Reece Humphrey (2009), J.D. Bergman (2008). Under Ryan's tutelage, nine Buckeyes have been crowned Big Ten champions - Pucillo (2008), Palmer (2010), L. Stieber (2012-15), H. Stieber (2013), Tomasello (2015) and Helfin (2014).

In addition to Stieber, Ryan coached Hunter Stieber and Nick Helfin to All-America status at the conclusion of the 2013 NCAA championships in Des Moines, Iowa. Hunter Stieber, who like his older brother was crowned a Big Ten champion (141 pounds) in 2013, finished third at the national event, while Helfin was a fifth-place finisher at 174 pounds.

Throughout his tenure as the head coach of Ohio State, Ryan, a three-time national coach of the year, has maintained a high standard of excellence for his student-athletes. In addition to the successes of Jagers, Pucillo and Stieber on the national level, under Ryan's guidance Lance Palmer (2007-10) became just the second four-time All-American at Ohio State. (Tommy Rowlands was the first). Ryan, a native of Wantagh, N.Y., is averaging better than three All-Americans a season having coached 34 selections during his 10-year term. Within the Big Ten Conference, Ryan has coached six Buckeyes to league titles in Snyder (2016), Tomasello (2015, 2016), Pucillo (184 pounds in 2008), Palmer (149 pounds in 2010), Logan Stieber (133 pounds in 2012 and 2013, 141 in 2014 and 2015) and Hunter Stieber (141 pounds in 2013).

Academically, Ryan's student-athletes have impressed with six Buckeyes recognized by the National Wrestling Coaches Association with NWCA All-Academic Team accolades -- J.D. Bergman, J Jagers, C.J. Magrum (two-time), Corey Morrison (two-time), Mike Pucillo and Colt Sponseller. Additionally, Sponseller and Ian Paddock were lauded with NWCA Division I True-Freshman All-Academic Team honors. Since Ryan's arrival there have been 48 and 96 Academic All-Big Ten and Ohio State Scholar-Athlete selections, respectively.

Ryan's student-athletes also are involved in various community service initiatives. Some of the programs Ohio State is actively involved in include the Second & Seven Foundation, which strives to "Tackle Illiteracy" in Central Ohio and the annual Wrestle against Autism Tournament. In 2009, the Buckeyes were presented with a Resolution of Expression in council chambers from Columbus City Council member A. Troy Miller for their commitment to community service.

After arriving to The Ohio State University campus in the spring of 2006, Ryan immediately began the task of completing his coaching staff. Ryan brought on board some of the best coaching talent in the nation in Joe Heskett, Lou Rosselli and Tommy Rowlands. Two years later, this staff would propel the Scarlet and Gray to the program's best finish in the NCAA championships. Backed by a pair of national champions -- Jagers and Pucillo -- for a total of three finalists, Ohio State earned 79 points for the first of consecutive runner-up finishes.

The following season, Ryan and Ohio State nearly pulled off one of the biggest upsets in NCAA championship history when three Buckeyes (Reece Humphrey at 133 pounds; Jagers and Pucillo) advanced to the finals with the team lead. In one of the tightest team races in recent championship history, the Buckeyes were clipped by Iowa by 4.5 points as Ohio State finished with 92 points compared to the Hawkeyes' 96.5.

Prior to coaching at Ohio State, Ryan was the head coach at Hofstra from 1995-2006. While with the Pride, Ryan earned Eastern Collegiate Wrestling Association and Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year honors seven times. He also was named New York State Coach of the Year twice. Leading Hofstra to six consecutive conference titles, Ryan and the Pride recorded a 47-match (46-0-1) conference unbeaten streak in dual action which served as the nation's longest conference unbeaten streak. Ryan also was an assistant coach at Indiana from 1992-94.

J JAGGERS

Assistant Coach
Seventh Season
Ohio State '09

Two-time NCAA champion J Jagers made a seamless transition from student-athlete to coach in 2009-10 as the volunteer assistant coach and recently completed his fifth year as a full-time assistant and sixth overall. In addition to his integral role in the gym and his coaching duties during matches, Jagers has recruiting responsibilities as well. His work on the recruiting trail, and on the mat, helped guide the Buckeyes to the 2015 national championship, the first in the 94-year history of the program.

Jagers concluded his Buckeye career in impressive fashion, becoming just the third wrestler in program history to win two national titles. A three-time All-American and four-time NCAA qualifier, Jagers collected 107 wins during his career. After winning his first national title in 2008, he was honored by the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission with Collegiate Athlete of the Year. He was also named the Ohio State Male Athlete of the Year in 2009.

Excelling in the classroom, Jagers was a three-time NWCA All-Academic Team member, two-time Academic All-Big Ten and Ohio State Scholar-Athlete recipient. Jagers earned his bachelor's degree in communication in March 2009.

Jagers and his wife Kara have a son, Jett, and a daughter, Presley. They reside in Delaware, Ohio.

TERVEL DLAGNEV

Assistant Coach
First Season
Nebraska-Kearney '08

Tervel Dlagnev, a two-time Olympian who has trained for the several years at the Ohio Regional Training Center, joined the Ohio State staff as an assistant coach this season.

Dlagnev was a two-time NCAA Division II national champion for the University of Nebraska at Kearney in 2007 and 2008; in 2008, Dlagnev led the Lopers to their first-ever team title. Following graduation, he moved to Columbus in order to be trained by Rosselli at the Ohio RTC. Since then, he has made eight national teams, winning the World Team Trials seven times.

In international competitions, Dlagnev has won two bronze medals at the World Wrestling Championships (2009 and 2014). At the 2012 and 2016 Summer Olympic Games, he finished in fifth place. Other tournaments won by Dlagnev include the US Open (2011-2015), World University Games in 2008, Pan American Games in 2011, Alexander Medved International (2010, 2013), Cerro Pelado International in 2012, and the New York AC International Open (2008-2010, 2012).

A native of Sofia, Bulgaria, Dlagnev moved to the United States when he was five years old and went on to finish fourth in the Texas state tournament as a junior in 2002, just his second year of organized wrestling. From there, he was third as a senior in 2003 before taking his talent to Nebraska-Kearney where he was a four-time All-American, the 2006 Midlands champion and a NCAA champion in 2007 and 2008.

2015-16 SEASON IN REVIEW

11-3 OVERALL; 7-2 BIG TEN
THIRD, BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIPS
THIRD, NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS
TWO NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
FOUR ALL-AMERICANS

Two champions. A third-place overall finish. The final night of the NCAA Championships was marked by a pair of dramatic wins for the Buckeyes' Kyle Snyder and Myles Martin, who cemented their place in program history before a sell-out crowd at Madison Square Garden and national TV audience on ESPN.

Snyder (11-0) and Martin (33-6) won the 20th and 21st individual titles in program history and join a list of 13 other Buckeyes who stood at the top of the podium. As a team, Ohio State's third place finish is its ninth top-10 showing in the past 10 years and fifth time in the top five (fourth time in the top three). Additionally, Snyder was named the championships' Most Outstanding Wrestler, the second consecutive Buckeye to take home that honor (Logan Stieber, 2015).

Martin put an exclamation point on what was an unforgettable true freshman campaign with an 11-9 victory over top-seed Bo Nickal of Penn State. The first true freshman national champion in program history, Martin trailed 4-3 in the second period before a wild six-point sequence put him ahead and a crowd of over 17,000 at Madison Square Garden into a frenzy.

Martin took down Nickal near the edge of the mat and then turned him on his back, racking up four near-fall points to go ahead 9-4. That was the score as the third period started, and an escape gave Martin a 10-4 advantage. Nickal tried to play catch-up the rest of the period, but it was to no avail. Martin is the first No. 11 seed to win a title since 1979.

It was a fitting end to the season for Martin, who spent the first two months as a redshirt competing at open tournaments. He had faced Nickal three times previously, most recently in the Big Ten semifinals in which Nickal won by pin. Martin is also just the 15th true freshmen to win a national title in the 86 year history of the NCAA Championships.

In the most highly-anticipated bout of the championships, Snyder and NC State's Nick Gwiazdowski didn't disappoint. After a scoreless first period, Gwiazdowski grabbed a 3-0 lead thanks to an escape and takedown. Snyder quickly countered with a escape and the escaped again to start the third period.

Midway through the period, Gwiazdowski took Snyder down to build a 5-3 lead, but the World champion finally finished off a shot on Gwiazdowski's legs with 11 seconds to go in regulation to send the bout into sudden victory. Quickly into the extra session, Snyder attacked again and took Gwiazdowski down for the winning points, which was upheld by video review. It snapped Gwiazdowski's 88-match winning streak, the longest in the nation.

HE'S GOLDEN

Big Ten Champion. NCAA Champion. World Champion. Kyle Snyder can now add another line to his resume: Youngest Olympic wrestling gold medalist.

The latest chapter in the storybook rise of Kyle Snyder was written in Rio last August. It had all the usual elements - drama, intrigue, suspense - and ended like they all do: with Snyder atop the winners stage. But this time, there was an Olympic gold medal draped around his neck. Now, he had the only thing missing from his trophy case.

Along the way, the 20-year-old junior-to-be made the impossible seem inevitable. It started with a World championship win last September. Then he added Big Ten and NCAA titles this past March. Three weeks later, Snyder sealed his spot on the Olympic team at the Trials in Iowa City. Sunday's 2-1 win over World No. 3 Khetag Gozumov of Azerbaijani made him the youngest Olympic gold medalist in U.S. wrestling history, capping a 12-month run that has been equaled just once before.

In the gold medal match, Snyder avenged a loss from earlier this summer to Gozumov at the Grand Prix of Germany. He scored a point in the first period on a pushout, another one early in the second on another pushout and held on for the final minute after the lead was cut to 2-1.

A HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Sunday's victory made Snyder only the second Ohio State wrestler to earn an Olympic medal, and the first to do so in 92 years (Harry Steel won gold in the 1924 Games in Paris). He's also the first active Buckeye wrestler to medal at the Olympics and the first active Buckeye student-athlete to win gold since Jerry Lucas (basketball) in 1960. Just 20 years old, Snyder supplanted Henry Cejudo as the youngest Olympic champion in U.S. history. Cejudo was 21 when he won gold at the 2008 Beijing Games. Snyder's win also continues a U.S. streak of at least one men's freestyle champion in every Olympics since 1968.

OPENING ROUND, QUARTERFINAL WINS

In the quarterfinals, Snyder shut out Albert Saritov of Romania, breaking the match open with a four point body lock and lift early in the second period, taking a 3-0 lead and increasing it to 7-0. It was much of the same in the first round against Cuba's Javier Cortina, as Snyder built a 3-1 lead after the first three minutes and wore Cortina down with a combination of takedowns and pushouts to secure a 10-3 victory.

Snyder punched his ticket to the gold medal match thanks to furious comeback in the final three minutes against world No. 6 Elizbar Odikadze of Georgia in the semifinals. After falling behind 4-0 quickly after the opening whistle blew, Snyder methodically wore down Odikadze, eventually breaking him in the final two minutes after getting three straight pushouts. Down 4-3, Snyder took Odikadze down, pushed him out, took him down again and added one more pushout. The end result was a 9-4 decision that was a testament to his superior conditioning and sheer willpower.

QUOTABLE

Snyder on gold medal match:

"It was a tough match. I wrestled that guy like a month ago and he beat me, so I'm happy that I've been able to improve on that performance, and, I keep saying it, I'm really thankful and grateful that I've even had this opportunity wrestle and my family and friends have been down here, to share it with them."

On his emotions after winning:

"I've been super emotional at times on the mat when I'm wrestling. I think it's just, maybe I was in shock. I don't know. I was definitely really happy, happier than I've ever been on a wrestling mat."

On his semifinal win:

"I never feel like I am out of a match, so, down 4-0 in the first 20 seconds, there is still a lot of time left to wrestle. If I don't have the power to score four points on a guy, then he is probably better than me. I am just confident in myself."

2015-16 MATCH-BY-MATCH RESULTS

EASTERN MICHIGAN OPEN

November 7, 2015 | Ypsilanti, Mich.

The season-opening Eastern Michigan Open was full of Scarlet and Gray on Saturday, as seven Buckeyes were crowned champions, three finished in second place, one was a third-place finisher and one came in fifth.

The list of Ohio State champions was led by seniors Johnni DiJulius and Mark Martin, but followed closely by a young group of Buckeyes that are quickly turning heads. Four of the seven champions were either freshmen or redshirt freshmen, namely Micah Jordan (redshirt freshman), Cody Burcher (redshirt freshman), Jake Ryan (redshirt freshman) and Myles Martin (true freshman). Nick Tavanello also took home the 285 lb. championship with a win over teammate Thomas Haines.

Runner-ups for the Buckeyes included Haynes, true freshman Ke-Shawn Hayes and Kollin Moore, also a true freshman. Additionally, Kenny Courts was third and Matthew O'Hara finished fifth.

Champions: DiJulius (133), M. Jordan (141), Burcher (149), Ryan (157), Myles Martin (174), Mark Martin (197), Tavanello (285).

Second Place: Hayes (141), Haines (285), Moore (197).

Third Place: Courts (184)

Fifth: O'Hara (197)

Buckeye vs. Buckeye finals: 141 lbs., 285 lbs., 197 lbs.

CLIFF KEENE LAS VEGAS INVITATIONAL

December 4-5, 2015 | Las Vegas, Nev.

Nathan Tomasello and Micah Jordan are bringing hardware back with them from Las Vegas, as they each won a pair of matches in the championship brackets at 125 and 141 pounds, respectively, to help the third-ranked Buckeyes finish fifth overall at the Cliff Keen Invitational.

Tomasello's 125-pound title came with a 5-4 decision in the final over Virginia Tech's Joey Dance. Tied at 4-4 late in the third period, Dance was called for stalling and that proved to be the difference as Tomasello capped his weekend with his first-career CKLV title (he finished third last year).

The sophomore got the first takedown of the match and led 2-1 following the first period, and then went ahead 3-1 with a quick escape to begin the second period. Dance evened things up with a second-period takedown but the wrestlers then exchanged escapes to make the score 4-4.

Jordan had one of the biggest days of his young career on Saturday, getting a 5-2 victory over top-seeded Solomon Chishkov in the semifinals and then following that up with a 7-3 win in the finals against third-seeded Todd Preston of Harvard.

In the finals, Jordan raced out to a 4-1 first-period lead thanks to a pair of takedowns. Preston made the score 4-1 to end the first stanza, but another Jordan takedown in the second extended his advantage to 6-2. Preston escaped towards the end of the second period, but was unable to get any closer (no points were scored in the third). Jordan tacked on an additional point for riding time.

HONORS AND AWARDS

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, awarded annually at each institution to the senior student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and athletics. Two Buckeye wrestlers have shown the drive and dedication needed to earn this award, Ron Gharbo (1988) and Mike DiSabato (1991).
